My First Yankees Playoff Game

I grabbed my coat and raced to the door. I was waiting for so long for my dad to finish jabbering. I was finally going to the playoff game with my cousin Alex and our friend Mitch. I couldn't wait any longer on the train. Now I'm at the game. Didi Gregorius was at second base and Greg Bird was at first base. Todd (Todd father) Frazier was up to bat. It was 2 and 2 count. Crack. "What's happening I can't see" I said. "It's a home run" said Alex. Yes we yelled. We started going ballistic by yelling, screaming, hugging, hi-fiving and stomping our feet against the floor. There were tears of blue and gray waving around in the air. This was the best baseball game ever, one that I will never forget.

Going Down A Water Slide

Was I going to get stuck? Was water going to get in my eyes? I didn't know what would happen because it was my first time on a water slide. We were in the Rockies in Colorado Hot Springs. My stomach really hurts I felt like I was going to throw up. I was with my sister mom and dad. My sister and I my dad went down first my sister started going down screaming "ahh".

I start to go down the slide. My heart was beating so fast I couldn't feel my body. I couldn't breath. I wish I can freak out and fly. I couldn't speak or at all. I finally reached the bottom. There was a loud splashy noise. The water went on top of me. I felt like I can't go down and I can't. I did it a lot of times because it was fun going down the water slide with my mom.

dad and sister. I wish I can do it again.

When I Met Tyson Chandler

"Hey, that guy is tall, he has a big beard, who is that?"
"Wait a minute, that's Tyson Chandler!" said Shira. I looked up and there he was, Tyson Chandler. One sunny Saturday morning my family and I were walking to Shul and we met Tyson Chandler. I felt super tiny looking up at the seven foot two giant basketball center. It was so cool that I met a basketball player who used to be good. When I got to hi-five Tyson Chandler he said in a very deep voice he said, "Hi!" I got to go to a basketball game but I never got to see him play. My family started to walk to Shul again.
This was one of the coolest moments of my life.

The boat

We drove all the way to Mexico. It took so long to get to Mexico. It was so loud because all the cars were honking. Then we finally made it to the boat to see the sealions. When I got on the boat it was rocking. I was so scared because I didn't want to fall so they helped me. Then they helped me. Then they helped everyone else that was getting on the boat then the engine started vrom vrom vrom. And my Mom asked me if I wanted to go swimming with the sealions. I said yes because I love sealions. They are so cute and fat sometimes. There were so many mountains on the way there and they were so big the mountains bigger than hundred people and then after all those mountains we finally got there. The sealions were so big and the baby sealions

Were so cute. And after seeing all the sealions we went back. To We passed all the mountains again.
Then we made it back. The gift shop was selling stuffed animal's and my mom bought me a sealion and I was so happy when we got back to the hotel the couch was there. And "my mom said I could get one". But said can I have two my mom said no. I was frustrated. That's a day I will not forget.

We had just gotten home from the park with all of our freinds we were sitting on the couch my parents yelled "family meeting" while my parents were sitting on a stool in front of me and my sister my parents sat down my mom started to cry while my dad started to say "we were looking online and we found a School that we were looking at and we really liked it and we took a tour and we sighted you up and its official so tomorrow you are going to see your classroom." I started to cry. I did not want to leave my school, I loved my school with all my freinds it was across the street I loved that. When my parents said my new school was 11 blocks away I was shocked. I felt nervous and scared. I wondered to myself am I going to make any friends at my new School? Will I be alone all the time? I was so worried.

I was so nervous. Then a second later my mom said "Do you want to look at some pictures on my computer?" I said "yes" that made me feel a little better about my new School.

Have you ever wanted to go somewhere so much you didn't even know how excited you were? My sisters are going to Nana's birthday party. Across the street is a bakery and my mom went in a few times. I've never been to this bakery so I was really happy that my mom took me here. The outside of the store was white with shiny red cursive letters spelling "Carlose Bakery!" We went inside, there was a big line of hungry people. The walls were white with shelves with a million beautifully decorated cakes and desserts. The desserts looked beautiful. Me and my mom got in line, we chose a chocolate cake and a chocolate peanut butter cup cake. My mom told me to go catch a table while she waited in line. A few minutes later my mom came back with the cupcakes and cake! She said "I got you a surprise!" she showed me a Carlose Bakery mug! I felt like my heart was going to jump out! We cut into the chocolate cake and hot melted chocolate spilled out of the warm cake! I could smell the warm steam. The peanut butter cup - cake had chocolate frosting and chopped up peanuts on the sides and a swirl of peanut butter fudge in the middle! We ate half of the chocolate cake and half of the peanut butter cupcake.

We picked up my sisters and went home. It was one of the best experiences of my life!
