

Ak, va

I remember the day I played with my most adorable cousin Ivy. We had a blast this is what we did. First we went to my grandparents backyard. They had a little kitchen so we played restaurant. Ivy was the waiter and I was the customer. She served pineapple, hotdogs, steak, salad and water. When we went to explore the backyard I found this acorn and peeled it open inside. There was a fat

Slimmy maggot. I went inside and put it in a cup. Then I threw the cup outside. That was horrible back to playing with Ivy after that maggot fiasco we went rolling down the hill on a Wagon. First Ivy went down the hill on a wagon I pushed her, S
