

IF I could go anywhere I would go to the 1996 Yankees Dugout with my mom, dad and sister. We would go in my car, like I always do. We could get seats above the dugout and get a tour of the club house because we know somebody who works at Yankee's stadium. I would meet a lot of famous players including Derek Jeter. I could become friends with him because he is friendly and loves kids. We would sit with him in the dugout. It would be awesome getting autographs and meeting Derek Jeter. I mean come on, how cool can that get? We could watch The Jeter and a lot of other famous plays on a field that looked like a giant lawn and smelled like roasted peanuts, mmm. Then I would go back to playing baseball and basketball, my normal life and it would be fun knowing Derek Jeter.

The End
