Visualizing the שמע and ואהבת

Draw some images of what the שמע and ואהבת mean to you.

Write a description of the items you drew and explain why you included them. Use information and examples from the text.

I drew a guy who loves G-d with all his heart and wearing a t-shirt and tights, there is a message on the door. I drew objects show that we love G-d with all our heart, and it shows what we do for G-d.

In my comic a man goes to sleep then wakes up. Before going to sleep and after waking up he says the Shema. He is wearing tefillin and touches a mizzenah. He also goes to pray. I think the theme of the Shema is love G-d and be thankful. ^{to put words between his eyes and on his arm/hand.}

I drew a person wearing the shema between their eyes and on their arm because the vaahavta says to do that. The person is also telling the kids about the shema because it says to share those words. I think the theme of the shema is that you should remember and honor g-d.
