

John's

Life

By Jacob
Altman

Journey

John wants to be a craftsman John's mom is letting him be an apprentice

(19 years later)

John travels across town to introduce himself to master Robert.

After 7 years of training he decided to become a craftsman

His mom was so proud of him!

After his career he became a craftsman

he was the best ever to live

He retired and became a master who taught a boy named John

